

USASBE Awards

Max S. Wortman, Jr./USASBE Award for Lifetime Achievement in Entrepreneurship

This award was instituted on the occasion of the 22nd anniversary of the founding of the United States Association for Small Business and Entrepreneurship (USASBE). The award will henceforth be presented to a worthy recipient in recognition for a lifetime of entrepreneurial achievement that encompasses the ideals of entrepreneurial activity-- through new venturing, corporate venturing, or social venturing. Eligibility extends to both those who have pursued a lifetime of successful venture creation as well as those whose life's pursuits supported and advocated the entrepreneurial ideals. Award winners include:

2006 – Cathy Ashmore
2005 – Justin Longenecker (deceased)
2004 – Max S. Wortman (deceased)

John E. Hughes Award for Entrepreneurial Advocacy

This annual award will recognize an individual or organization who (which) has consistently contributed encouragement; support; physical, intellectual, and/or spiritual resources; time; talent and/or skills; development; and/or financial contribution to further the cause of entrepreneurship. Nominees need not have founded a company (or organization) and may come from the business world or any level of academia. Award winners include:

2006 – Gerald E. Hills
2005 – Robert Brockhaus
2003 – John E. Hughes
